VOL. VIII. NO. 20.

CHICAGO, THURSDAY, JANUARY 23, 1902.

PRICE 5 CENTS.

EASTERNERS ARE PLEASED.

The New Orleans Picayune of January 20, has this to say about easterners that are now playing the races there:

"The work done by the Crescent City Jockey Club in the east last summer has borne good fruit. Their representatives induced many New Yorkers to make the trip here this winter, and that they have helped the game considerably none will be foolish enough to deny. The right people were induced to come here, and with them came plenty of money. They soon made their presence felt, and their liberal methods have done more to help the sport than all the cheap 'boosting' that has been handed out in previous seasons by the garbled reports of some would-be press agents.

"Many who came from the east are making their first trip, and to say that a big majority of them are pleased with the racing here and the way in which the sport is conducted would not be stretching a point. They have sent back good reports to their friends, and the result is that new arrivals are coming in every day from the east. Several got in last night, among them Joe Hayman and L. Frank, while Dave Gideon is due to arrive some time today. George E. Smith (Pittsburg Phil) has written that he will join the ranks in a few days.

"William Lakeland, who returned to New York Friday, was surprised at the improvement of the game here. He had nothing but words of praise for the track and its managers, and from the tone of his talk it is almost safe to say that next winter will find him racing a string of horses at the Fair Grounds. If Lakeland does come, it will mean that many others will follow, for shrewd owners will figure that if the game is good enough for Lakeland it will be good enough for them. Among other things which Lakeland had to say about the racing was:

"If those in charge could see their way clear to increase the overnight purses a little it would mean a tremendous inducement. The stakes are liberal enough, but if the purses were just a bit larger it would mean that owners would be forced to come here with some fair material. The last time I was in New Orleans racing was at a low ebb. A change in management has brought wonderful results. I am at a loss to see why some owners ship across the continent from New York to race their stables while there is such a flourishing game within thirty-six hours of Benning's. The track here is tiptop, and, so far as I can see, it is safe enough to race any kind of a horse over. In the old days, of course, it was bad. So was the racing."

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

The figures handed out by the Coney Island Jockey Club in regard to the comparison in the number of entries of 1901 and 1902 will give some idea of what to expect in the racing line the coming season. The following is a complete comparative table:

	1901.	1902.
Suburban.....	51	58
June Handicaps.....	72	74
Advance.....	32	43
Equality (new, $1,500 added).....	—	54

Indruff.....	40	52
Great Trial.....	106	143
Double Event.....	95	119
Zephyr.....	122	—
Spring.....	—	114
Vernal.....	94	138
Beacon Steeplechase (new).....	—	53
Independence Steeplechase.....	54	57
Rockaway Cup (new).....	—	29
Flight.....	27	13
September.....	19	17
Autumn.....	88	116
Flatbush.....	37	53
Great Eastern.....	46	41

Note—The Beacon Steeplechase and Rockaway Cup have a supplementary closing May 15. The Flight, September, Flatbush and Great Eastern have a supplementary closing July 15.

The reason that the figures are missing in the Zephyr and Spring Stakes for 1901 is because these stakes have not closed in January for some years. They generally closed about June 1 with an average of about forty-five nominations.

The bay filly by Domingo—Alcestis, by Hindoo, which H. M. Ziegler, of Cincinnati, purchased at the Woodward & Shanklin sale for $140, started thoroughbred horsemen at Lexington, Ky., several days ago by running an eighth of a mile in 11 seconds, the fastest eighth ever run over the Lexington track by a two-year-old. Among the famous horses which worked over the Lexington track at that age were Henry of Navarre, Lazzarone, Sallie McClelland, French Park (that was never beaten), May Hempstead and other stars of the running turf. Domingo is practically unknown as a sire, but was a great race horse and won over forty races in the colors of millionaire Charles Fleischmann. Considering the time of the year and the fact that the youngster has just entered training, it is the most sensational performance ever credited to a two-year-old. The first foal of the season has arrived at Castleton Stud in a chestnut filly by Kingston—Calico, by Hampton—Deity.

By a transaction completed January 21, Buffalo, N. Y. is promised one of the finest race tracks in the country. A track of 105 acres of land lying just outside the city limits has been sold through S. S. Kingsley to Edwin C. Roth, who represents the Buffalo interests in the new track. Work in preparing and building the track will be begun at once and it is expected it will be completed by June 7, when a twenty-five day meet will begin. George V. Hankins and M. L. Denslow represent the Chicago interests in the project. The price paid for the land is said to be $53,775 and $175,000 is to be spent in the improvement.

Mr. J. N. Camden, who recently went to England to replace his dead stallion Esher, has purchased two highly bred stallions in England in Mazagon and Tarbolton. The first named is a bay, six years old, by Martagon—Maize. Martagon is by Bend Or—Tiger Lily. Tarbolton is a bay, foaled in 1894, by Ayrshire—Radiance. Ayrshire won the Derby in 1888, and Bend Or won it in 1880, so that as far as breeding is concerned the two horses are well fortified to replace Esher in the affections of Mr. Camden. They must be good lookers as well, and no doubt the Kentuckian has chosen wisely.

Secretary Russwurm of the New Tennessee Breeders' Association will go to New Orleans in a day or two. He goes there in the interest of his association, which offers several valuable stakes which will be run at the spring meeting at Cumberland Park. Nashville will have open dates this year, and indications point to the most successful meeting held there since the days of the old West Side track. Mr. Russwurm is a very popular official with the horsemen, and he is sure to get a number of entries.

Jockey Mitchell, who two years ago was one of the leading jockeys riding at New Orleans and who had the best percentage of winning mounts, will leave there in a few days for New York, whence he will sail shortly for Warsaw to fulfill his contract with the stable of Baron Blook.

Milt Young, of the McGrathiana Stud, has purchased from W. L. Oliver, of Lakewood, N. J., the four-year-old bay filly Mauga, by Cayuga—Medusa, the dam of Lithos, by Robert the Devil; also the chestnut filly Nanine, by Meddler—Petrea. Both of these mares are good winners and have a record behind them. Mauga as a two-year-old won the Proviso Stakes at Chicago and the Worden House Stakes at Saratoga. They will be used for stud purposes. The price was private.

Mynheer, which has won both his starts at New Orleans lately, will likely change hands within a few days. The horse's showing in both his races was so impressive that several offers have been made to his trainer to part with him.

Winner—B. f. by Bradford—Clever. Went to post at 2:15. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won in a canter; second easily. Moabina broke flatfooted but went to the front when well into her stride. She clung to the rail in the deep going and was eased up in the last quarter. She was much the best and is a more than useful racing tool. Jungfrau made up much ground after getting off badly. She evidently liked the going. Tibs ran a good race. Ynsula finished strongly. Outside of the first two it was a bad lot.

Moabina, show, 1 to 2. Jungfrau, show, 6 to 5. Tibs, show, 12 to 1.

Winner—Ch. g. by Montana—Pert. Went to post at 2:43. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Mountebank got off fully in his stride and spreadeagled his field. He was fresh and good and won easily up. Light Ball was lucky and well handled. He tired badly at the end. Harry Thatcher finished with a rush. Buck Taylor ran a good race. Foul Play closed some ground in the last eighth. Pupil was badly outrun from the start.

Scratched—30277 Fidel Youlin, 105; 30240 St. Rica, 103.

Overweights—Foul Play, 5 pounds; Antolee, 3.

Winner—Ch. f. by Balgowan—Parolee. Went to post at 3:09. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Durazzo is evidently a coming crackerjack and was the best. He got a lucky break and made the most of his advantage, but bumped Sylvia Talbot in the stretch, for which he was disqualified. The latter was badly handled and held under restraint too long. She failed to respond when called upon. Adirondack's seasoned condition enabled him to outlast Altawan, which ran a fine race and is a very promising filly. Delseengo ran well and should improve.

Scratched—30291 Arabo, 106.

Winner—Ch. g. by Take Notice—Happy Maiden. Went to post at 3:31. At post 1 minute. Start bad. Won easily; second driving. Rollick was nearly left at the post but was so much the best that he could have taken a winning lead in the first quarter. He was on the rail in the worst going. Decoy ran well throughout. Wyoming was under restraint to the far turn but failed when called on and was evidently short. His race should be thrown out. Herculean finished strongly in the worst going. He should run an improved race on a half dried track.

No show betting.

Winner—Br. c. by Sain—Ada Reese. Went to post at 3:57. At post 4 minutes. Start fair. Won easily; second the same. Corrigan broke flatfooted, but was badly handled. Ranch rushed him on top of horses repeatedly and was compelled to pull him up a number of times in consequence. With clear sailing he could have forged to the front at the half with great ease. He outclassed his field in the going. Commissioner Forster was an eased up second. He showed much speed and gameness. Halmetta trailed her field until rounding the last quar

Time, 24, 49, 1:15.

Winner—B. g, by Puryear D.—Sweet Peggy.
Went to post at 4:24. At post 6 minutes. Start bad. Won easily; second the same. Pompino, off well in his stride, was lucky throughout. He drew away easily in the stretch and was the best. Redwald is a powerfully built horse and ploughs through heavy going with ease. He was fresh and good. Bard Burns closed a big gap from a bad break. San Venado was sore in his preliminary, but ran well throughout. Pat Morrissey broke well and trailed under a pull up to the last sixteenth, but the ride was ill timed and he was called upon when too late. He was probably the best. The Singer was short.

Scratched—30307 Invictus, 102.
Pompino, show, evens. Redwald, show, 8 to 5. Bard Burns, show, evens. Pat Morrissey, show, evens.

Winner—B. f. by Himyar—Soubrette.
Went to post at 3:03. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won cleverly; second driving. Palms was much the best and had to run all around her field. Troubaline quit but under a vigorous ride came again in the last sixteenth. Trilby Nelson tired badly when she looked all over the winner. Randolph Jr. tired badly when collared. Janie Seay ran poorly. Negoncie was nearly thrown down on the first turn.

Scratched—30056 Prosit, 117.

Winner—B. f. by Longfish—Susie Cockrill.
Went to post at 3:38. At post 8 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Hattie Davis was under restraint in the early stages, went to the front at the stretch turn and could have won farther off. The boy on John W. Dahney was absolutely of no help to him. With a good ride he would have been a strong factor, if not the winner. Laracor about ran his race. Oton Clay had no mishaps. Botina and Swan Dance showed early speed.

Winner—B. m. by Linden—Ella H.
Went to post at 2:34. At post 8 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Linden Ella was tiring and had all she could do to stall off Prince Real's challenge at the end. Coburn allowed the latter to drop too far out of it in the first half. He had to go to the outside, rounding the far turn to get up. Prince Real finished strongly and would have won in several more strides. This was a bad looking ride. Socapa was staggering in the run home. Pay the Fiddler closed a big gap and finished stoutly.

Scratched—30284 Jackanapes, 114; 30232 Joe Collins, 104.
Linden Ella, show, 3 to 5. Prince Real, show, 2 to 5. Socapa, show, evens.

30331 THIRD RACE—Short Course. Purse $300. 4-year-olds and upward. Handicap.
